7TH DISTRICT COMMUNITY PROSECUTION UPDATE

CSOSA Mass Orientations The U.S. Attorney's Office, through its community prosecutors, supports the Court Services and Offender Supervision Agency (CSOSA) in its execution of the innovative Mass Orientation program. This program sets the ground rules for offenders new to probation and parole by discussing the rules, regulations, and sanctions for those under supervision. CSOSA has expanded the program to include presentations by MPD and the U.S. Attorney's Office. The 7D Community Prosecution team participated in recent Mass Orientations of offenders at the CSOSA field office located at 3850 South Capital Street, Southeast. AUSA John Interrante and COS Lisa Nanches Jackson discussed how the U.S. Attorney's Office works with CSOSA on supervision re-arrests and explained to offenders the laws and criminal penalties for firearms-related crimes, including prosecution of convicted felons in federal court.

The COURT REPORT

Hal B. Coates was sentenced to 20 years in prison for the murder of a Clinton, Maryland man during a drug deal gone sour. (PSA 709; Case No. F-4905-02)

FACTS: According to the government's evidence, during the early morning hours of July 7, 2002, defendant Hal B. Coates, 21, of 625 Chesapeake Street, S.E., was in the 700 block of Chesapeake Street, S.E., Washington, D.C. A burgundy-colored car containing the decedent, Mr. Forrest, and an unknown female, came into the block. The female exited the car and asked, "Who was working?" The defendant indicated that he could serve her and she approached the defendant. The defendant walked her around to a nearby building. Instead of retrieving drugs, the defendant picked up his gun that was hidden in the cut. The defendant returned to the female, pointed his semi-automatic pistol at her and took her $5.00.

The defendant then asked her to get Mr. Forrest. Mr. Forrest got out of his car, and approached the defendant. The defendant pointed the gun at Mr. Forrest, and demanded money that he believed he was owed from a previous cocaine purchase that had gone bad. Mr. Forrest refused the defendant's demands and started running towards his car. As he started running towards his car, another young man grabbed and tackled Mr. Forrest. Mr. Forrest broke free from that man and got into his car. The defendant got behind Mr. Forrest's car and fired one shot, which hit the trunk. He then raised his arm up and fired a second shot, which struck Mr. Forrest in the neck causing his death.

On July 31, 2003, Coates pled guilty to Second Degree Murder While Armed. He was sentenced on January 30, 2004, before District of Columbia Superior Court Judge Ann O'Regan Keary to 20 years in prison, for killing Reginald C. Forrest, 37, of Clinton, Maryland.

Assistant United States Attorneys David Deitch and Karen L. Melnik prosecuted the case on behalf of the government.

Keith Jackson was convicted of Manslaughter for killing Clinton Hodges, a.k.a. "Black," after a dispute over payment for tires. (PSA 702; Case No. F-2731-02)

FACTS: The government's evidence at trial showed that on May 1, 2002, defendant Keith Jackson, 19, of 2633 Jasper Street, S.E., agreed to sell 4 tires to his friend for $100. The agreement between the defendant and his friend was for the friend to pay $50 that night and the remaining balance two days later. Shortly after 10:00 p.m. that same evening the defendant was with his friend, Clinton Hodges (also known by the nickname Black), and two other friends in the parking lot of Rockburne Estates Apartment Complex, in the 2700 block of Shipley Terrace, S.E. Mr. Hodges and one of the friends were putting the tires on a car when the defendant argued with Hodges about whether their friend would pay the remaining balance for the tires. During the course of that argument, Mr. Hodges had a tire wrench in his hand but did not swing the wrench at the defendant, and did not hit him with it. Mr. Hodges told the defendant that he would do to him like another person had done, referencing an earlier unrelated incident where a person had put out a cigarette on the defendant's face. The defendant said, "I'll bust you, I'll shoot you,” to Mr. Hodges and left the parking lot. As the defendant walked away, he stated that it was not a game and he was going to get his gun. At least three minutes later, one of the defendant’s friends saw the defendant walking back to the parking lot with an assault rifle. When the defendant reached the parking lot, he pointed his assault rifle at Mr. Hodges, said “What’s up now, Black?” and immediately began to fire at Mr. Hodges. The defendant shot Mr. Hodges twice in the back and once in the upper left side of his face. One of the shots that struck Mr. Hodges in the back caused immediate paralysis from his arms down his entire body. The shot to the left side of Hodges’ face exited the lower front part of his face, blowing off a good portion of his face. While calmly walking away, the defendant stepped over top of the Mr. Hodges’ body. Mr. Hodges ultimately died from his injuries.

On January 29, 2004, a Superior Court jury convicted Jackson of Manslaughter, Possession of a Firearm During a Crime of Violence, Possession of a Prohibited Weapon (Machine Gun), Possession of an Unregistered Firearm, and Unlawful Possession of Ammunition in connection with the murder of Clinton R. Hodges. Sentencing is scheduled for April 23, 2004, before the Honorable John Bayly, Jr. Jackson faces up to 48 years of imprisonment when sentenced in this case.

Assistant United States Attorneys Karla-Dee Clark and John Han prosecuted the case on behalf of the government.

Venlonte V. Bethea, of Suitland, Maryland, was sentenced to 31 to 93 years for the shooting death of Deante Howe and the non-fatal assaults of three other individuals in a 1998 shooting spree. (PSA 708; Case No. F-7201-98)

FACTS: According to the government’s evidence at trial, on September 21, 1998, Venlonte V. Bethea, 29, of Suitland, Maryland, formerly of the S.E. quadrant of Washington, D.C., and three of his friends went to the area of 2915 8th Street, S.E., to kill two of the complainants. That evening the decedent just happened to stop by 2915 8th Street, S.E., to obtain some music. When the decedent walked out of that home with the four complainants, the defendant and his friends attacked them. One of the defendant’s friends beat two of the complainants with a metal pole. Bethea pulled out a gun, pointed it at one complainant, and told him he was going to die. When Bethea pulled the trigger the gun jammed and that complainant ran away. Bethea then fired his gun at another complainant, grazing his side. Bethea turned toward a car where the decedent and one complainant had fled, and fired several rounds into that car. The decedent was struck by the gunshots, drove away from the scene, but passed out shortly thereafter. The decedent was pronounced dead later that same night.

On February 5, 2002, a Superior Court jury found Bethea guilty of one count of Second Degree Murder while Armed, four counts of Assault with Intent to Kill while Armed, one count of Possession of a Firearm During a Crime of Violence, one count of Carrying a Pistol Without a License, one count of Carrying a Dangerous Weapon, and one count of Conspiracy to Murder. On January 29, 2004, he was sentenced by the Honorable Shellie F. Bowers to a prison term of imprisonment of 31 to 93 years.

Assistant United States Attorneys Kathleen Davies and Karla-Dee Clark prosecuted the case on behalf of the government.

Norris Hill was sentenced to 35 years in prison for his conviction of Premeditated Murder While Armed and other related charges for the 2001 shooting in Arthur Cappers Public Housing area. (PSA 707; Case No. F-7723-01)

FACTS: According to the trial testimony, on March 14, 2001, Norris Hill drove a friend to the 900 block of Second Street, S.E., to buy some PCP. When they arrived in the block, Mr. Hill parked the car and his friend got out and walked to the rear parking lot of the Arthur Cappers Public housing complex. While the friend was in the parking area, defendant Chauncy Bowman, 25, of the 600 block of Condon Terrace, S.E. and two accomplices armed themselves with guns and surrounded Mr. Hill's car. The defendant, armed with a .357 revolver, walked up to the car, stuck his hand in a partially open car window and fired five rounds into the car. Three of the rounds struck Mr. Hill, 46, of Alexandria, Virginia, causing him to die minutes later.

Another accomplice, wielding a .9mm pistol, stood approximately 40 feet in front of the car and fired seven rounds into the air. The third participant, brandished a Tec 9 shotgun, positioned himself behind the car and fired at Mr. Hill's friend who ran down the street. The friend was not injured. Immediately after the shooting, the defendant fled the scene. A few days after the murder, the defendant, admitted to a neighborhood friend that he had "dumped off in the car."

Months after the murder, while the grand jury investigation was still pending, the defendant approached one of the witnesses in the case and told him to lie to the police by saying that another person shot into the car with the .357 revolver.

Prior to this arrest, the defendant gave three videotaped statements to the police outlining his version of the events surrounding the murder of Mr. Hill. He ultimately admitted that on the day of the murder, he carried the .357 revolver and shot into the passenger window, killing Mr. Hill.

On October 7, 2003, a Superior Court jury found the defendant guilty of all counts. On January 30, 2004, the Honorable Judge Patricia Broderick of District of Columbia Superior Court sentenced Bowman to 35 years of imprisonment based upon his conviction of First Degree Premeditated Murder While Armed, Possession of a Firearm During a Crime of Violence, Carrying a Pistol Without a License, and Obstruction of Justice in connection with a shooting which occurred in the 900 block of Second Street, S.E., on March 14, 2001.

Assistant United States Attorneys Lynn C. Mattucci and John Han prosecuted the case on behalf of the government.

Shanti A. Scott was found guilty of Aggravated Assault While Armed and other related charges for his involvement in a non-fatal shooting that stemmed from an argument. (PSA 707; Case No. F-6540-03)

FACTS: According to the government's evidence, on September 4, 2003, defendant Shanti A. Scott, 27, of the S.E. quadrant of Washington, D.C., approached Reginald Bailey in the 600 block of Atlantic St., S.E., and asked him if he wanted to make some money. When Mr. Bailey refused, the two became involved in a verbal argument. The defendant punched Mr. Bailey in the face and Mr. Bailey swung back but missed. The defendant then stepped back, took out a .40 caliber semi-automatic handgun, and shot Mr. Bailey in the leg. The bullet passed through Mr. Bailey's left leg and lodged in his right ankle. Mr. Bailey was eventually transported to Howard University Hospital where the bullet was removed from his ankle. The injury was not fatal, but placed Mr. Bailey in extreme physical pain. Detectives of the Metropolitan Police Department obtained an arrest warrant for the defendant, after Mr. Bailey identified him in a photo spread.

On October 21, 2003, officers of the Metropolitan Police Department stopped the defendant driving a car at 4th Street and Condon Terrance St., S.E. After confirming that there was an arrest warrant for the defendant, the police searched the car and found a .40 caliber semi-automatic handgun in the center console. The Metropolitan Police Department Firearms Examination Section confirmed that bullet recovered from Mr. Bailey's ankle was fired from the same gun recovered from the defendant.

On February 12, 2004, the defendant was convicted by a Superior Court jury of Aggravated Assault While Armed, Assault with a Dangerous Weapon, two counts of Possession of a Firearm During a Crime of Violence, Carrying a Pistol without a License, Possession of an Unregistered Firearm, and Unlawful Possession of Ammunition. Sentencing for the defendant is scheduled before the Honorable Wendell P. Gardner, Jr. on April 9, 2004, at which time he faces up to 62 years in prison.

Assistant United States Attorney John K. Han prosecuted the case on behalf of the government.

Timothy Robinson was sentenced to prison for causing a fatal crash on Southern Avenue, S.E. in 2001, that killed a 39-year old mother of three. (PSA 707; Case No. F-6691-02)

FACTS: The evidence presented at trial established that on September 22, 2001, at 10:20 a.m., Timothy Robinson, 26, of the 6700 block of Kipling Parkway, District Heights, Maryland was speeding at 55-60 mph as he drove southbound on Southern Avenue, and approached 13th Street alongside Greater Southeast Hospital. The posted speed limit at that location is 30 mph. Ms. Boomer was the front-seat passenger in a car that had been traveling northbound on Southern Avenue, which had stopped, and was making a legal left turn from Southern Avenue onto 13th Street. As the car in which Ms. Boomer was riding began to make the turn, the defendant was speeding in the left hand lane coming toward the intersection. The defendant came upon another slower car traveling in the same lane as both cars approached the intersection.

He accelerated around that car, passing it in the right lane just prior to the intersection and without an adequate view of the intersection. He then accelerated into the intersection, and likely was trying to move back into the left-hand lane in the intersection, when he struck the passenger side where Ms. Boomer sat. The defendant never attempted to brake or steer his car away from the collision. The force of the impact catapulted Ms. Boomer's car twisting 180 degrees into the air, throwing it into a utility pole, again crushing the passenger side of the car.

All of these events were witnessed by an off-duty Metropolitan Police Officer, who was stopped at the intersection. She apprehended the defendant as he fled from the collision and she called immediately for medical assistance. Despite a rapid response by emergency personnel, Ms. Boomer died at the hospital hours later from massive internal injuries. Neither the defendant nor the driver of Ms. Boomer's car was seriously injured.

On November 25, 2003, a Superior Court jury found Robinson guilty of Negligent Homicide. On February 13, 2004, Judge Ann O'Regan Keary sentenced him to a period of three years incarceration, with all but 20 months suspended, for the negligent homicide of 39-year-old Delores Boomer. Ms. Boomer, the mother of three children, was the passenger in a car hit by Robinson at the intersection of Southern Avenue and 13th Street, S.E., on the morning of September 22, 2001.

Assistant United States Attorneys John Soroka and Robert Bowman prosecuted the case on behalf of the government.

Timothy Ronell Jones, a.k.a. "Ronell," was sentenced to 17 Years for killing his friend, Sandra Lee Harrison, on June 18, 2003. (PSA 705; Case No. F-3614-03)

FACTS: According to the government's evidence, on Wednesday, June 18, 2003, at approximately 1:05 p.m., members of the Metropolitan Police Department's Seventh District received a radio assignment for a man beating a woman in the hallway of 3401 10th Place, S.E., Washington, D.C. Once at that location, an officer located the decedent, Sandra Lee Harris, on the stairs. She was pronounced dead by a deputy D.C. medical examiner at the scene. The subsequent autopsy revealed that the cause of death was blunt force trauma to the head.

According to witnesses, Timothy Ronell Jones, a.k.a. "Ronell," 26, of 3316 Wheeler Road, S.E., was observed smoking PCP earlier that day. Shortly after smoking PCP, a witness observed the defendant taking off his shirt and pants inside the entryway of 3401 10th Place, S.E. Witnesses further observed Ms. Harris, who was known to be a friend of the defendant's, repeatedly ask him to get dressed. Ms. Harris then left the entryway of 3401 10th Place, S.E., and remained outside of the building.

The defendant then hollered repeatedly for Ms. Harris to come inside the entryway. Ms. Harris went inside, at which time the defendant punched her in the face. After a very brief physical altercation, witnesses heard a continuous thumping sound coming from the entryway. Witnesses saw the defendant repeatedly banging Ms. Harris's head against the stairs, which ultimately caused her death. The defendant fled the scene, but later turned himself in to police.

On October 23, 2003, Jones pled guilty to voluntary manslaughter in connection with the incident. On February 13, 2004, Judge Patricia A. Broderick sentenced the defendant to 17 years incarceration for killing his friend, Sandra Lee Harris.

Assistant United States Attorney Karen L. Melnik who prosecuted the case on behalf of the government.

Melvin Clark was sentenced to three years incarceration for Carrying a Pistol Without a License. (PSA 708; Case No. F 4870-01)

FACTS: The evidence presented at trial established that on the evening of July 30, 2001, the co-defendant and Melvin Clark, 22, of the 1400 block of Southview Drive, Oxon Hill, Maryland, traveled from the Park-Morton area of N.W., to the 2900 block of 8th Street, S.E., to confront an individual. Testimony from the co-defendant's cousin indicated that there was bad blood between the co-defendant and the individual, after a fight between the two men. Once in Southeast, the co-defendant and Clark parked in a dark alley off of 8th Street and walked down to the area where they knew the individual hung out. The co-defendant and Clark approached the individual who was standing in the street with a group of friends. Seconds later, the co-defendant and Clark pulled guns from their waistbands and began shooting at their target. Instead of hitting the individual, however, they each shot Demetrius Cunningham. Evidence showed that the bullet from the co-defendant's gun killed Mr. Cunningham. Clark was arrested on the scene and the co-defendant was picked up several days later on a warrant, after Clark identified him as the other shooter.

On September 9, 2003, a Superior Court jury found Clark guilty of carrying a pistol without a license. His co-defendant, Marquette Muschette, was convicted by the same jury of Second-Degree Murder While Armed, one count of Possession of a Firearm During a Crime of Violence, and Carrying a Pistol Without a License. The convictions stem from the shooting death of Demetrius Cunningham, 26, of the 400 block of Orange Street, SE. On February 20, 2004, Clark was sentenced before the Honorable Geoffrey Alprin to three years, for his conviction of Carrying a Pistol Without a License.

Assistant United States Attorney Blanche Bruce prosecuted the case on behalf of the government.

Terrence Butler was sentenced to 13 years for First Degree Burglary and Attempted Second Degree Burglary. (PSA 702; Case No. F-3688-03)

FACTS: According to the government's evidence, June 10, 2003, at 4:00 a.m., through the use of a ladder while wearing a mask and armed with a knife, defendant Terrence Butler, 20, of 1126 Varney Street, S.E., entered a second story window of a private home located in the 1100 block of Varney Street, S.E. The window belonged to the bedroom of a 14-year-old girl, who was asleep in her bed. The defendant approached the girl and shook her. The girl opened her eyes to see the defendant, a man she recognized from her neighborhood, standing over her and brandishing the knife. The defendant ordered the girl to show him her vagina. The girl, terrified and shocked, screamed out for her mother. Startled by her response, the man left the same way he entered, which was through her bedroom window and down a ladder. The girl's mother appeared in the bedroom and looked out the window. She yelled to the man by his nickname, "Bubbles." The intruder, who was walking away in their backyard dragging the ladder behind him, stopped in his tracks, and turned back to look inside the window. Then, he dropped the ladder and began to run in the direction of his home.

On June 22, 2003, at approximately 6:00 a.m., the defendant returned to the same home. Again, the mother was asleep in her bedroom, as were her 14-year-old daughter and her younger son in their own rooms. This time, the defendant entered through a front living room window. He crept up the stairs and entered the mother's bedroom. The mother awoke to see a masked man standing over her bed armed with a knife. The woman, terrified and shocked, struck out at the man. The defendant reached out and stabbed the woman in the cheek, with the knife that he took from the woman's kitchen. The defendant then turned and ran out of the home. This time, the mother tried to stop the defendant by following him down the stairs and to the front window. As he tried to jump out of the window head first, the mother grabbed the defendant's leg. During the struggle, the man's mask dropped below his face and the mother was able to have a clear view of the man – the defendant who lived up the street and entered her home the previous week.

On February 27, 2004 Butler was sentenced yesterday before Superior Court Judge Susan Winfield to a term of 13 years in prison for breaking into a neighbor's house on two separate occasions in June 2003. On January 9, 2004, he entered a guilty plea to one count of First Degree Burglary and to one count of Attempted Second Degree Burglary

Assistant United States Attorney Stephanie Pendell prosecuted the case on behalf of the government.

A jury convicted Antoine Coleman and his co-defendant, Quincy Jones, of two counts of First Degree Premeditated Murder While Armed and other related charges for executing two teenagers over a broken car window. (PSA 706; Case Nos. F-1057-02; F-2232-02)

FACTS: The evidence at trial showed that on July 14, 2000, at 4:00 a.m., that defendants Antoine Coleman, 24, and his co-defendant, Quincy Jones, 24, were in the Trenton Park housing complex in the Southeast quadrant of Washington, D.C. The defendants became angry when they learned that two teenagers from another neighborhood had broken into defendant Jones's car. In the parking lot near defendant Jones's car, one of the defendants' friends held the two teenagers, Mylan Lucas, 17, and Hakim Williams, 19, at gunpoint with a shotgun. Meanwhile, defendant Jones went to get an AK-47 assault rifle inside the apartment of his friend, defendant Coleman. Defendant Jones returned to the parking lot, AK-47 assault rifle in hand, and pointed the gun at the teenagers. The teenagers begged for their lives and promised to pay for the broken rear vent window of defendant Jones's Oldsmobile. Defendant Jones handed the AK-47 assault rifle to defendant Coleman, who had followed him out to the parking lot. Defendant Jones then searched the pockets of the teenagers to see if they had any money to pay for the broken window. They did not. Defendant Coleman then asked Defendant Jones what he wanted to do. Defendant Jones said, "Fuck him." Defendant Coleman, at point-blank range, then fired the AK-47 repeatedly at Mylan Lucas. Four bullets struck Mylan Lucas in the head and several more in the back and torso, as defendant Coleman continued to fire after Lucas had fallen. When the other teenager, Hakim Williams, flinched, as if he was trying to run away, the man with the shotgun (Kevin Bowman, who has already pleaded guilty to two counts of Second Degree Murder While Armed) shot Williams in the chest and hand. Defendant Coleman then shot Hakim Williams, after he had already been shot in the chest with a shotgun, three times in the head with the AK-47. When the police arrived on the scene, the teenagers' faces had been partially blown off. There was brain matter and body parts on the ground nearby, next to defendant Jones's broken car window.

On February 17, 2004, a D.C. Superior Court jury convicted Coleman of two counts of First Degree Premeditated Murder While Armed, Obstruction of Justice, and related weapons charges. The jury found that the murders were especially heinous, atrocious, and cruel, which means that Coleman faces a maximum prison term of life in prison without the possibility of parole when sentenced by Judge Robert I. Richter on April 26, 2004. Jones was convicted on February 18, 2004, of two counts of Second Degree Murder While Armed and related weapons offenses. Jones faces a maximum prison term of forty years to life in prison, with a minimum term of five years, when sentenced by Judge Richter on April 22, 2004.

Assistant United States Attorneys Jonathan Rosen, Doug Klein, Tom Tourish, Amanda Haines, Catherine Motz, and former Assistant United States Attorney Ann Rosenfield all prosecuted the case on behalf of the government.
